

AGREEMENT

Candidate commitment

Draft for member review | 29 September 2026

Plain language summary

A personal commitment to the member controls in the drafts. It is not a law and it does not put anyone in office. The codes do nothing until members adopt them. A candidate who will follow them can say so in writing before the vote, and can agree to resign if they do not follow through.

Not a law. Not a by-law. Signing it does not put anyone in office. Laws cited were read on the Justice Canada consolidations current to 21 September 2026, the Charter and Constitution Act, 1982 consolidation, and the Treaty No. 8 text published by Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs Canada. This draft is not a legal opinion.

Part 1. What this is

1.1 This is a personal commitment. It is not a law, not a by-law, and not a Band Council Resolution. Signing it does not put anyone in office.

1.2 It is not a promise made in order to collect votes. A candidate who signs it is saying they will follow it if they take a seat, and that they agree to resign if they do not follow it.

Part 2. What the candidate does

2.1 If you are running, do these steps yourself.

- Download this commitment yourself.
- Read it, and read the codes it names.
- Commit to it.
- Endorse it in your own words.
- Sign it and date it.
- Promote it.
- Make it public.
- Make a video of yourself saying you signed it and you mean it.
- Give a signed copy to members.

Part 3. The commitment

3.1 I have read the constitution, the bill of rights, the election code, the council procedure, the conduct instrument, the band money instrument, and the spending instrument in this set.

3.2 I will support a member vote on those instruments. I will not ask council to adopt them by resolution alone.

3.3 I will not vote on my own pay, honorarium, travel, or a contract with me or my immediate family. I will leave the room.

3.4 I will not commit more than $10,000 of the First Nation's money by myself. I will not sign a contract over $25,000 unless a written invitation to bid was posted for 14 days. I will follow the signature rules and the publication of the financial statements and the remuneration schedule.

3.5 I will not vote to postpone the fixed election day.

3.6 I will disclose conflicts within the days the conduct instrument sets, and I will accept the appeal body as the place a member reports a breach.

3.7 Within 30 days of taking office I will file a public mandate of 3 to 5 goals, each with a number, a date, or a defined outcome. Within 30 days after each quarter I will file a public report on those goals.

3.8 I will not vote to cancel, postpone, or defund a removal petition or a removal vote that meets the election code.

3.9 If I take office and I do not follow this commitment, I agree to resign. I will deliver records, keys, and passwords within 7 days of resigning.

3.10 Signature, printed name, and date.

Signing this page does not amend the Indian Act, any election code now in force, or a by-law. A resignation agreement may still need to be carried out under the election rule that applies. A lawyer should look at that rule before a candidate relies on the resignation line in a dispute.
